HOW IS A CELL GROUP DIFFERENT FROM OTHER TYPES OF SMALL GROUPS?

In previous articles, I talked about some key concepts related to our upcoming small groups, which we will call our Parish Evangelization Cells System. We talked about oikos (meaning “household”) evangelization, which truly was the model of the early church and played an invaluable role in the Church’s growth. Rather than focusing on a mission field in a foreign land, the Christian who embraces oikos evangelization sees a mission field in his or her own household, among coworkers, friends, and neighbors, and all those with whom he or she has a close relationship.

We also talked about the seven moments of a cell group: song and prayer, personal sharing, the teaching, discussion and application, announcements, intercession, and healing prayer. These moments will help to ensure that it is normal for lay Catholics to have the fellowship of other committed lay Catholics available to them to encourage, nurture, and discern as they attempt to follow Jesus. Our Parish Evangelization Cells System proposes a concrete answer to the changing scenarios and challenges of contemporary parish culture that makes church matter and have meaningful impact on our lives.

But let’s be clear about one distinctive element of Cells. They exist to evangelize. Many types of small groups do not exist to evangelize, but rather to respond to the very particular needs of those who are already evangelized (fraternal groups, support groups, study groups, etc.) The Cell, on the other hand, seeks to make new disciples among those in our oikos who may be far from Jesus and his Church. While nurturing the faith and mutual love among its members, the Cell is nevertheless ordered to constant growth and multiplication. The Cell anticipates and plans for its own growth and, in fact, carries out its very mission at the very moment when a sister or brother, distant from the faith, enters it. The whole Cell adapts to the newcomer according to the words of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark: “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all” (Mark 9:35). Time is marked according to the progress of that newcomer, eagerly awaiting the moment when he or she can walk with the others in adherence to Christ and become an evangelizer. Then, if the Cell exists to evangelize, the parish will exist to evangelize.

Of course, it is impossible for us to be able to carry out this endeavor of beginning parish Cells and to claim to be able to speak of Jesus and proclaim him Lord without entrusting to him, and to his Spirit, our task of evangelization. We must commit to a massive effort of prayer if we are to experience the blessings of God in this effort. We must remember what Saint Paul VI wrote in his encyclical about evangelization titled, Evangelii Nuntiandi in 1975: “Techniques of evangelization are good, but even the most advanced ones could not replace the gentle action of the Spirit. The most perfect preparation of the evangelizer has no effect without the Holy Spirit. Without the Holy Spirit the most convincing dialectic has no power over the heart of man. Without Him the most highly developed schemas resting on a sociological or psychological basis are quickly seen to be quite valueless” (no. 75).

We will therefore need to become a genuine school of prayer where our meeting with Christ will include not only imploring his help, but also include thanksgiving, praise, adoration, listening and ardent devotion. Our hearts must truly fall in love with our Lord. We will find ways to open our hearts, once again, to Jesus in the coming year! May God bless us all in this great endeavor.

Father Tony

PIANO IN NEED OF NEW HOME

For decades, the piano in the gym has provided memories for many parishioners. From school concerts to piano lessons it has been a cherished item at our parish. Today, the piano is now looking for a retirement home. It is starting to show its age in scratches, dents, and significant chips, but still has the same heart on the inside. This piano would be best for someone who likes restoring old pianos or someone who would like a piano who doesn't mind doing a little bit of work.

Free to a parishioner or loving home. Pickup only.

CUT-OUT ON ADVERTIZING

Some of you may have noticed that there is a new "ad" on the back page. It is not actually an ad, but a cut-out that you may use to show appreciation. Whenever you patronize a business on the back of the bulletin, you may cut out the "Thank You" box and present it. This shows the business owners that they made good use of their advertising budget by advertising in our bulletin.

LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP BERNARD A. HEBDA

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Merry Christmas to you and to your loved ones! Please know of my prayers for each of you as we celebrate the Incarnation of our Lord, Jesus Christ. In gratitude, I ask you to join me in reflecting more deeply on the Psalm for Mass on Christmas morning, "A light will shine on us this day: the Lord is born for us." (Ps 97).

This light was seen clearly this fall as so many of you participated in our Small Group Leadership Formation, leading up to the kick-off of our new way of being Church through small groups this coming Lent. What an exciting time to be part of this Archdiocese! I am so grateful for the commitment of your pastor, parish staff, and the lay women and men who are leading this effort.

Please know of my continued prayers for you, your loved ones and your parish. I ask that you also pray for me, our clergy and the amazing parish staff members who serve so many in so many ways.

With Christmas blessings and joy,

Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda
Archbishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis

SYMFONIA KOLED: WORLD PREMIERE OF A CHRISTMAS SYMPHONY BY SAMUEL BACKMAN

*Friday, January 12th, 7:30 p.m.,
Holy Cross Catholic Church, Minneapolis*

Minneapolis-based organist and composer Samuel Backman will premiere a newly composed four-movement symphony entitled Symfonia Koled. This vivacious and stirring work quotes Polish Christmas carols extensively, and it was written to honor the memory of Janusz Zorawski, an immigrant from Poland, and a beloved pillar in his community. This concert is free and open to the public with a reception following.

MIRIAM DINNER

Wednesday, January 24th, 6-8 p.m., Archdiocesan Catholic Center, St. Paul

Archbishop Bernard Hebda, Bishop Michael Izen, and Father David Blume, director of vocations invite women ages 16-35 who are discerning consecrated life. It is typical for women discerners to be accompanied by their pastor, consecrated religious, or youth minister. The evening begins with prayer, followed by dinner with consecrated women sharing their vocations testimonies.

Priests, deacons, and consecrated women in the Archdiocese are encouraged to invite women, ages 16-35, who present a sincere interest in consecrated life.

Register at 10000vocations.org/miriam-dinner.html

OUR CHRISTMAS WISH LIST

Actually it isn't a list, it is really only one thing. Would you be willing to donate to Guardian Angel's Livestream Ministry project?

Each week, Guardian Angels records and streams the 10 a.m. Mass (as well as some Holy Days, Funerals, etc.). The recorded Masses are then available for viewing any time on GA's YouTube channel (the links are www.gachaska.org). The Livestream ministry helps bring GA's Mass to homebound and, in the case of funerals, friends and family members who might not be able to be here in person to see the Mass. During the Pandemic, our livestream channel provided a vital link for everyone to continue participating in the Mass from the safety of their homes.

For the past four years, we have been using aging reused videocams (sourced from the school and donated by parishioners) and other equipment that is starting to show its age and is becoming unreliable. It is time to update the equipment and install cameras that are reliable and able to be controlled from the Livestreamer's desk in the choir loft (the current cameras must be moved by hand and this proves to be challenging in a full choir loft!).

Furthermore, we are working with the City of Chaska to air the Mass on one of the local cable access channels so that those without a computer can simply tune into the Mass on a television. We need reliable and updated cameras in order to move this into the next phase.

We have sourced equipment that is modern, reliable and affordable. Guardian Angels has a talented and dedicated group of volunteer livestreamers. The only thing we are missing is YOU - someone willing to help us fund this upgrade project!

So, if you are looking for a great way to make an end-of-year donation to a worthwhile project, we hope you might consider helping us raise the funds to purchase this new equipment. Thanks in part to several generous donations (including several from the livestream volunteers) we have already collected more than half the funds needed to make this purchase. If you are able to contribute, please contact the Parish office or simply enclose your donation in an envelope labeled Live Streaming and put in the collection basket.

Thank you for considering this worthwhile project! Feel free to check out our volunteer efforts at www.gachaska.org/livestream

There is a donor that is challenging the parishioners with a $750.00, thus essentially doubling those donations.

GIVING TREE THANKS YOU!

A message from one of the families on the Giving Tree:

This has probably been one of the hardest years of my life and I can't even express how much this means to me. My kids will be so happy!
