Mass Intentions: Mass intentions may be for the living and/or the departed, with a † designating in the bulletin a deceased person. There is a $10 suggested donation per Mass intention. Permission from the sick person or his/her family must be granted before a name's inclusion in these prayers. To schedule a Mass intention, call the Parish Office.

Baptism: Our Baptism Belonging Class is required for all parents as a first step to Baptism of your child. We encouraged Godparents to attend. The Belonging Class is held once per month after the 10:00AM Mass. Please call the parish office to sign up for the class. Baptism dates will be given at the class. Special dates requested will be considered and accommodated depending on circumstances.

Reconciliation: Saturdays at 2:45—3:45 PM or by appointment.

Matrimony: Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least eight months in advance.

Anointing: If you wish to receive an anointing please call the Parish Office: (952) 227-4000.

Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

From The Pastor

To Fear Only One Death

Two miracles of Jesus are vividly recounted by Mark. The people are flocking to Jesus. His healings of the sick arouse many people's hopes. And how moving the synagogue ruler's request is: "My little daughter is at the point of death!" His beloved child must not die! No one can help except Jesus, and in his trouble he trusts him completely.

Among those who trust Jesus in the crowd on the way is a hemorrhaging woman. She is ritually unclean and excluded from all religious life and not allowed to touch anyone. After spending so much money on doctors who couldn't help, she hopes to touch Jesus without anyone noticing. Her touch does not go unnoticed by either the crowd or Jesus. Both feel a power that is at work. Jesus is looking for her not to expose her, but to praise her faith.

Faith is demanded of Jairus too. He is told by Jesus that his child is not dead: "Do not fear, only believe." He wakes the child with one word that the community remembers: "Talitha kum," which means, "little girl, I say to you, arise!" Jesus works miracles for these two among many and their stories were written down so that we may know his power and his love. He lets us see who he is. He is the Savior who heals what is wrong. Wherever he comes, healing and wholeness take place. He heals bodily illness, and even up to today, miracles of this kind are happening through his power. The accounts of his works have filled libraries and now he lets himself be touched by us too.

In all the sacraments and especially the Eucharist, we touch, not merely the hem of his garment, but his very self. And a power goes out from him that can heal the body and fill our souls. A lowly woman stands for all time as an example of faith that has the confidence to approach him and touch him.

He says, "The child is only sleeping." We should not be afraid of the "sleep" of death. The only thing that we have to be afraid of is the "second death", the eternal separation from God. That is why there is nothing more urgent than to trust in Jesus wholly and completely and to believe in him. Let us approach him like the hemorrhaging woman and like Jairus eagerly and with devotion in order that we may experience his power and love.

Sunday Readings

June 27th, 2021

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading 1

Wis 1:13-15; 2:23-24

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

Responsorial Psalm

30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.
I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.
Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.
Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me; O LORD, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing; O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Reading 2

2 Cor 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brothers and sisters:

As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written:

Whoever had much did not have more,
and whoever had little did not have less.

Gospel

Mk 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said,

"Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

CURSILLO IS COMING TO GA IN JUNE & JULY WHAT IS A CURSILLO WEEKEND?

The Cursillo Movement is introduced over a consecutive seventy-two-hour period called a "Three Day Weekend." During the three-day weekend, which begins Thursday evening and ends Sunday evening, a team of religious and lay personnel present a series of talks to the candidates and the entire group calls upon the Holy Spirit for enlightenment and guidance. The team and candidates live as a small Christian community over the weekend and discuss these talks in small groups. The discussions provide an opportunity to share insights about the presentations and hear how others received that same presentation. The talks and discussions cover a variety of topics including:

- The layperson's role within the Church
- Meaning of grace and sacraments
- Importance of prayer and the study of God
- Christian leadership and living Christianity in community.
- Our call to bring Christ to others and transform the very environments in which we live.
- The importance of supporting one another in our efforts to live a truly Christian life.

Throughout the weekend the participants will pray together, attend daily mass, and have an opportunity to receive the sacrament of reconciliation. Typically, by the end of the weekend, candidates have a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and a better understanding of the power of the Holy Spirit. Also, candidates leave the weekend knowing that they have been called to spread the Word of God.

Town Hall Meeting

Mark your Calendars!

Tuesday, June 29th

"After daily Mass, at about 6:10 PM, the Parish Pastoral Council will serve a simple burger and brats dinner in the Saint Francis Hall. Then, our meeting will start at 7:00 PM. We will cover operating finances, capital campaign wrap-up, a top priority for our maintenance fund, Archdiocesan Synod small groups, and next year's Encounter faith formation."

Synod Small Groups Starting this Fall

If you ever start a sentence with, "The Church needs to..." then a Synod Small Group is for you! Recently, we have made announcements at Mass about the Fall Small Groups that are planned at Guardian Angels Parish. Check our website for a document explaining the Synod Process that our Archbishop, in his wisdom, has called together and why these small groups are critical to the process of providing information about the best ways for the local Catholic Church to form:

1. Parishes that are in the service of evangelization;
 2. Missionary disciples who know Jesus's love and respond to his call; and
 3. Youth and young adults in and for a Church that is always young.
- You can take action to be a part of this process by
1. Complete the interest form in the slots in the Church pews and hand in to the collection basket.
 2. Go online at GACHaska.org to complete your interest form.
 3. Check out Archspm.org, our archdiocesan resource about the Synod Process.
 4. Join a small group in the fall starting Sept 19 – 6 weekly sessions, 2 hours each.
- Your input will help our local Church grow in understanding in the 3 Synod Focus Areas and help each of us reflect on our faith and our Church so we may better "reach out from the altar of Christ to Educate, Serve and Evangelize".

Festival of Our Mother of Perpetual Help

June 24-27 at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, Brooklyn Center

Join us for a festival to honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help. Over the course of four days, we gather to name and mourn the losses of the past eighteen months, to discover hope for the future grounded in our Baptismal identity, and take that hope in procession to the world. Visit stalsmn.org/omph for more information.

Healing Mass

June 29, 7-9 p.m. at Church of Saint Paul, Ham Lake

Come and experience the healing touch of the Lord. Fr. Jim Livingston will celebrate Mass followed by a time of individual prayer.

XIII Domingo Ordinario

Primera lectura

Sb 1, 13-15; 2, 23-24

Dios no hizo la muerte, ni se recrea en la destrucción de los vivientes. Todo lo creó para que subsistiera. Las creaturas del mundo son saludables; no hay en ellas veneno mortal. Dios creó al hombre para que nunca muriera, porque lo hizo a imagen y semejanza de sí mismo; mas por envidia del diablo entró la muerte en el mundo y la experimentan quienes le pertenecen.

Salmo Responsorial

Salmo 29, 2 y 4. 5-6. 11 y 12a y 13b

R. Te alabaré, Señor, eternamente.

Te alabaré, Señor, pues no dejaste que se rieran de mí mis enemigos. Tú, Señor, me salvaste de la muerte y a punto de morir, me reviviste.

R. Te alabaré, Señor, eternamente.

Alaben al Señor quienes lo aman, den gracias a su nombre, porque su ira dura un solo instante y su bondad, toda la vida. El llanto nos visita por la tarde; por la mañana, el júbilo.

R. Te alabaré, Señor, eternamente.

Escúchame, Señor, y compadécete; Señor, ven en mi ayuda. Convertiste mi duela en alegría, te alabaré por eso eternamente.

R. Te alabaré, Señor, eternamente.

Segunda lectura

2 Cor 8, 7. 9. 13-15

Hermanos: Ya que ustedes se distinguen en todo: en fe, en palabra, en sabiduría, en diligencia para todo y en amor hacia nosotros, distínganse también ahora por su generosidad.

Bien saben lo generoso que ha sido nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que siendo rico, se hizo pobre por ustedes, para que ustedes se hicieran ricos con su pobreza.

No se trata de que los demás vivan tranquilos, mientras ustedes están sufriendo. Se trata, más bien, de aplicar durante nuestra vida una medida justa; porque entonces la abundancia de ustedes remediará las carencias de ellos, y ellos, por su parte, los socorrerán a ustedes en sus necesidades. En esa forma habrá un justo medio, como dice la Escritura: Al que recogía mucho, nada le sobraba; al que recogía poco, nada le faltaba.

Evangelio

Mc 5, 21-43

En aquel tiempo, cuando Jesús regresó en la barca al otro lado del lago, se quedó en la orilla y ahí se le reunió mucha gente. Entonces se acercó uno de los jefes de la sinagoga, llamado Jairo. Al ver a Jesús, se echó a sus pies y le suplicaba con insistencia: “Mi hija está agonizando. Ven a imponerle las manos para que se cure y viva”. Jesús se fue con él, y mucha gente lo seguía. Unos criados llegaron de casa del jefe de la sinagoga para decirle a éste: “Ya se murió tu hija. ¿Para qué sigues molestando al Maestro?” Jesús alcanzó a oír lo que hablaban y le dijo al jefe de la sinagoga: “No temas, basta que tengas fe”. No permitió que lo acompañaran más que Pedro, Santiago y Juan, el hermano de Santiago.

Al llegar a la casa del jefe de la sinagoga, vio Jesús el alboroto de la gente y oyó los llantos y los alaridos que daban. Entró y les dijo: “¿Qué significa tanto llanto y alboroto? La niña no está muerta, está dormida”. Y se reían de él.

Entonces Jesús echó fuera a la gente, y con los padres de la niña y sus acompañantes, entró a donde estaba la niña. La tomó de la mano y le dijo: “¡Talitá, kum!”; que significa: “¡Óyeme, niña, levántate!” La niña, que tenía doce años, se levantó inmediatamente y se puso a caminar. Todos se quedaron asombrados. Jesús les ordenó severamente que no lo dijeran a nadie y les mandó que le dieran de comer a la niña.

Oración a San Miguel Arcángel

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla.

Sea nuestra protección contra la maldad
y trampas del diablo.

Que Dios lo reprenda, oramos con humildad,
y tú, Príncipe de los ejércitos celestiales,
por el poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás,
y todos los espíritus malignos,
que merodean por el mundo buscando la ruina de las almas. Amén.
