WHO WILL ROLL BACK THE STONE?

Imagine what it would have been like to be the women, Peter, or John in the gospel story. They could not possibly have anticipated what happened. They had spent so much time with their Master and Teacher whom they loved. They had found great hope in he who brought healing and showed them how to live. But now they wanted to put closure on what had been an exciting time in their lives. Anointing his dead body was to be a last loving gesture. It was the least that they could do. When have we felt like that, only to anticipate a large stone in front of us? When have we felt that something important to us was taken away?

Jesus really was dead and crucified and there really was finality to it – or so it seemed. But God raised Jesus from the dead! God has broken into the tragic human drama and reversed what had seemed like the inevitable. God has broken into our human experience of moving on to the next exciting thing that grabs our attention and has charted a course for us that will last forever.

Peter, who must have felt like a failure, heard the Good News that Jesus was raised and saw it for himself. The other disciple whom Jesus loved ran with him and saw and believed. They received new life and a new reason for hope in seeing as the women did!

We celebrate Easter, yes, but we really celebrate it when we prayerfully come before Him to face our tombs like the women did at Mass and in our personal prayers. We come to see it for ourselves like Peter and John when we come to Mass and take part in receiving the great and living memorial of his sacrifice – His body and blood, given up for us. We see it for ourselves when we desire the truth of His holy Word that we hear at Mass and in our personal prayer. Then our daily lives can change with a real knowledge that He is alive wherever we go and in whatever situations we face. Place your trust in He who is risen for us, the one who has conquered death will pull us up and into the fullness of life. Make time in your life for the one who is alive! Have a great Easter and God bless you all!

Father Tony

¿QUIÉN RETIRARÁ LA PIEDRA?

Imagínense cómo habría sido ser las mujeres, Pedro o Juan en la historia del evangelio. No podrían haber anticipado lo que sucedió. Habían pasado tanto tiempo con su Maestro y Maestro a quienes amaban. Habían encontrado una gran esperanza en Aquel que trajo sanidad y les mostró cómo vivir. Pero ahora querían poner fin a lo que había sido un momento emocionante en sus vidas. Ungir su cadáver iba a ser un último gesto de amor. Era lo mínimo que podían hacer. ¿Cuándo nos hemos sentido así, solo para anticipar una gran piedra frente a nosotros? ¿Cuándo hemos sentido que nos quitaron algo importante para nosotros?

Jesús realmente estaba muerto y crucificado y realmente había un carácter definitivo en ello, o eso parecía. ¡Pero Dios resucitó a Jesús de entre los muertos! Dios ha irrumpido en el trágico drama humano y revertido lo que parecía inevitable. Dios ha irrumpido en nuestra experiencia humana de pasar a la próxima cosa emocionante que capta nuestra atención y ha trazado un curso para nosotros que durará para siempre.

Pedro, que debe haberse sentido como un fracaso, escuchó la Buena Nueva de que Jesús había resucitado y lo vio por sí mismo. El otro discípulo a quien Jesús amaba corrió con él y vio y creyó. ¡Recibieron nueva vida y un nuevo motivo de esperanza al ver como las mujeres!

Celebramos la Pascua, sí, pero realmente la celebramos cuando en oración nos presentamos ante Él para enfrentar nuestras tumbas como lo hicieron las mujeres en la Misa y en nuestras oraciones personales.

Llegamos a verlo por nosotros mismos como Pedro y Juan cuando venimos a Misa y participamos en recibir el gran y vivo memorial de su sacrificio: Su cuerpo y sangre, entregados por nosotros. Lo vemos por nosotros mismos cuando deseamos la verdad de Su santa Palabra que escuchamos en la Misa y en nuestra oración personal. Entonces nuestra vida diaria puede cambiar con un conocimiento real de que Él está vivo dondequiera que vayamos y en cualquier situación que enfrentemos. Pon tu confianza en Aquel que resucitó por nosotros, el que ha vencido a la muerte nos levantará y nos llevará a la plenitud de la vida. ¡Haz tiempo en tu vida para el que está vivo! ¡Que tengan una excelente Pascua y que Dios los bendiga a todos!

Padre Tony

Faith Formation

As you look around at all of the beautiful flowers adorning our beautiful Church, do you know how the Easter Lily become the most popular Easter flower?

Pure white in color with a trumpet-like shape, it's long been associated with purity, innocence, and spring, making it the perfect flower to welcome a fresh new season.

Let's look at the story of the Easter lily to see why it's so closely tied into, even being named after, Easter. Known to Christians as the "white-robed apostle of hope," the Easter lily has been a religious symbol since the birth of Christianity.

"Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow...King Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these," Jesus said during the legendary Sermon on the Mount, touting the grace and beauty of this simple white flower as more impressive than the holdings of the richest king in the Bible.

After Jesus' death and resurrection as told by the Christian faith, his admiration of white lilies began to take on an entirely new symbolism.

An Easter lily begins life as a modest bulb, and after at least three years underground, blooms anew as a bright, fragrant flower. Similarly, the Bible says Jesus began life as a mere human, who after death, spent three days in a tomb before being born anew on Easter as a transformed holy being. And appropriately enough, Nazareth, Jesus's hometown, was an ancient Hebrew term for "flower."

On the first Easter, white lilies are said to have sprouted in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus spent the final hours before his arrest and crucifixion. In the 15th century, Leonardo da Vinci's painting The Annunciation depicts the Angel Gabriel handing the Virgin Mary a branch of the flower while announcing Jesus will be her son. Catholic doctrine also tells that three days after the Virgin Mary's burial, her tomb was opened and found to contain nothing but the purest white lilies.

CAMBIA TODO

La Pascua lo cambia todo. Al haber resucitado de la muerte, Jesús destroza las imágenes espantosas que persiguen a la humanidad. La traición, la tortura, la crucifixión, la muerte, el entierro, estos terrores palidecen ante la gloria brillante de Jesús resucitado. El salmo de hoy guía nuestra respuesta al poder de Dios: "es maravilloso a nuestros ojos". Hoy es, en efecto un día para maravillarse, para agitarse de asombro ante la resurrección de Jesús. Durante toda la historia de la humanidad, la muerte había sido el final. Sin embargo, en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, Pedro atestigua que Jesús, quien había sido ejecutado públicamente, fue resucitado por Dios. El Evangelio de Juan admite que los discípulos "aún no entendían la Escritura de que tenía que resucitar de la muerte". Incluso los amigos más cercanos no esperaban esta novedad, la vida después de la muerte. En respuesta al milagro de la Pascua, Pablo nos dice que seamos "un poco de levadura" para hacer "fermentar toda la masa". Todo, incluso nuestro propio ser, debe convertirse en algo nuevo.

La Pascua lo cambia todo.
