you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

We encourage Godparents to attend. Baptisms are scheduled once per month after the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Special dates requested for Baptism will be considered and accommodated depending on circumstances.

Communion for the Homebound: When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. That way we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

Hospital, Nursing Home, Homebound Visits: Churches are no longer notified by hospitals or nursing homes when a parishioner is admitted unless the family has requested it. If you or a family member are homebound, hospitalized or in a nursing home and would like a visit from a member of the ministry staff, please call the Parish Office.

FINANCIAL CORNER

In today's Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

GIVE THEM SOMETHING TO EAT

On the feast of Corpus Christi, the sacred host is given reverence in quite an extraordinary and solemn manner. Many churches around the world have processions, and the priest carries Jesus in the monstrance through the streets and into the public squares. Many make the sign of the cross and genuflect as the procession goes by. The Church encourages parishes to have a Eucharistic Procession and I would like to have one here someday soon at both churches in some way. Does having one still make sense today? The procession with the Blessed Sacrament signifies God's real presence in our world and in our lives, reminds us of our common pilgrimage to Heaven, and is really a prayerful act of the entire Church on that day as many individual processions around the world take place.

The feast of Corpus Christi, then, becomes one time when our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is exposed not just to faithful Catholics, but to all the world. We show our love for Christ in the Real Presence by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing Our Lord and Savior closer to them. If many conversions are a result of Eucharistic Adoration experienced from inside the Church, perhaps the procession would plant a seed for those driving by.

Some might ask that, in view of the great want in the world, isn't it more important to respond to people's bodily needs than to process with the Blessed Sacrament? Both are important. Blessed Teresa of Calcutta was once given a gift of an extremely valuable ruby. To everyone's surprise she directed that it be set on the tabernacle of the sisters' chapel in Calcutta. People objected that it would make more sense to sell the stone for a great sum of money, so as to be able to help the poor. She is supposed to have said, "When Christ is no longer revered, then people will soon pay no more attention to the poor.

May God grant us the grace to always revere him in the Blessed Sacrament, to come to receive his life by receiving him, and pay attention to the poor!

Father Tony

DARLES ALGO DE COMER

En la fiesta del Corpus Christi, la sagrada hostia es reverenciada de manera extraordinaria y solemne. Muchas iglesias alrededor del mundo tienen procesiones, y el sacerdote lleva a Jesús en la custodia por las calles y plazas públicas. Muchos hacen la señal de la cruz y hacen una genuflexión al pasar la procesión. La Iglesia alienta a las parroquias a tener una Procesión Eucarística y me gustaría tener una aquí pronto en ambas iglesias de alguna manera. ¿Tener uno todavía tiene sentido hoy? La procesión con el Santísimo Sacramento significa la presencia real de Dios en nuestro mundo y en nuestras vidas, nos recuerda nuestra peregrinación común al Cielo y es realmente un acto de oración de toda la Iglesia en ese día, ya que se llevan a cabo muchas procesiones individuales en todo el mundo. La fiesta del Corpus Christi, entonces, se convierte en un momento en que nuestro Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento se expone no solo a los fieles católicos, sino a todo el mundo. Mostramos nuestro amor por Cristo en la Presencia Real honrándolo de una manera muy pública. También es una forma maravillosa en la que podemos mostrar nuestro amor por nuestro prójimo al acercarlos a Nuestro Señor y Salvador. Si muchas conversiones son el resultado de la Adoración Eucarística experimentada desde el interior de la Iglesia, tal vez la procesión plantaría una semilla para los que pasan. Algunos podrían preguntarse que, en vista de la gran necesidad que hay en el mundo, ¿no es más importante responder a las necesidades corporales de las personas que procesar con el Santísimo Sacramento? Ambos son importantes. La beata Teresa de Calcuta recibió una vez como regalo un rubí extremadamente valioso. Para sorpresa de todos, ordenó que se instalara en el tabernáculo de la capilla de las hermanas en Calcuta. La gente objetó que tendría más sentido vender la piedra por una gran suma de dinero, para poder ayudar a los pobres. Se supone que dijo: "Cuando Cristo ya no sea reverenciado, la gente pronto dejará de prestar atención a los pobres. ¡Que Dios nos conceda la gracia de reverenciarlo siempre en el Santísimo Sacramento, de llegar a recibir su vida al recibirlo, y de estar atentos a los pobres!

STATEMENT REGARDING APPOINTMENT OF BISHOP ROBERT BARRON TO DIOCESE OF WINONA-ROCHESTER

From Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda:

It is with deep joy, and gratitude to Pope Francis, that I welcome the news of the appointment of Bishop Robert Barron as the next bishop of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester. I have long admired his ministry and am delighted that he will now be bringing his rich experience and considerable gifts as a teacher and preacher to the people of southern Minnesota, building on the firm foundation that is Bishop John Quinn's legacy after 13 years of faithful ministry as Bishop of Winona-Rochester. I very much look forward to collaborating with Bishop Barron as he joins the bishops of our state in striving to provide pastoral leadership after the heart of Christ, the Good Shepherd. As the Church prepares for the Solemnity of Pentecost, please join me in praying for a renewed outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon Bishop Barron, Bishop Quinn, and the faithful of the Diocese of Winona-Rochester and the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, particularly in this time of transition.
