FINANCIAL CORNER

Jesus healed ten lepers in today's Gospel. Only one (ten percent) came back to say thank you. I, too, have received many blessings from the Lord— indeed, all I am and all I have is a gift! How and how often have I remembered to thank Him?

HAVE MERCY!

Leprosy was and still is a terrible disease. It arouses revulsion and dread, which caused lepers to be rejected and sent to an island, abandoned and left to suffer their miserable fate. A Belgian priest, Saint Damian de Veuster, was so shaken by what happened to them that he volunteered to go to them, bringing the message of the love of God to such people that were, in a sense, buried alive. He was active among them for many years, living out the Gospel of hope and translating it into action, until he became one of them himself. He died of leprosy in 1889.

Saint Damian had been seized by the love of Jesus for the poorest people. Like Jesus, he did not pass them by nor look away from their misery; he looked into their disfigured faces and saw in them the person, the brother or sister, who was suffering. He had mercy on them and heard their cry for mercy.

Today, we don't have very much of the leprosy that was prevalent then, but we have our modern day lepers, such as young people who have fallen victim to drugs or have no family to help them. How many people today find themselves in such difficult situations of family trauma? They are like lepers. Often people who are mentally ill describe their situation in words like that.

Can Jesus work his miracle of healing among such people today? We can only continue to practice the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy with trust in God's power. God is a powerful God! It is, of course, sad that only one comes back to thank Jesus. But hasn't Jesus also healed me through his mercy, in which he seeks me, accepts me, and loves me? Perhaps we have forgotten this, but we still have time to learn to grasp this reality. When we do, we trust in his way of service in mercy to others and his compassion and desire to work miracles in the lives of others and ourselves.

Father Tony

¡TENER COMPASIÓN!

La lepra era y sigue siendo una enfermedad terrible. Suscita repugnancia y pavor, lo que provocó que los leprosos fueran rechazados y enviados a una isla, abandonados y abandonados a sufrir su miserable destino. Un sacerdote belga, San Damián de Veuster, estaba tan conmovido por lo que les sucedió que se ofreció como voluntario para ir a ellos, llevando el mensaje del amor de Dios a esas personas que estaban, en cierto sentido, enterradas vivas. Estuvo activo entre ellos durante muchos años, viviendo el Evangelio de la esperanza y traduciéndolo en acción, hasta convertirse él mismo en uno de ellos. Murió de lepra en 1889. San Damián había sido dimensionado por el amor de Jesús por los más pobres. Como Jesús, no los pasó por alto ni apartó la mirada de su miseria; miró sus rostros desfigurados y vio en ellos a la persona, al hermano o a la hermana, que sufría. Tuvo misericordia de ellos y escuchó su clamor por misericordia. Hoy en día, no tenemos mucha de la lepra que prevalecía entonces, pero tenemos nuestros leprosos modernos, como los jóvenes que han sido víctimas de las drogas o que no tienen familia que los ayude. ¿Cuántas personas hoy en día se encuentran en situaciones tan difíciles de trauma familiar? Son como leprosos. A menudo, las personas con enfermedades mentales describen su situación con palabras como esa. ¿Puede Jesús obrar su milagro de curación entre tales personas hoy? Solo podemos continuar practicando las Obras de Misericordia Corporales y Espirituales con confianza en el poder de Dios. ¡Dios es un Dios poderoso! Por supuesto, es triste que solo uno regrese para agradecer a Jesús. ¿Pero no me ha sanado también Jesús por su misericordia, en la que me busca, me acepta y me ama? Quizás lo hemos olvidado, pero aún estamos a tiempo de aprender a captar esta realidad. Cuando lo hacemos, confiamos en su forma de servicio en la misericordia hacia los demás y en su compasión y deseo de obrar milagros en la vida de los demás y de nosotros mismos.

JOIN THE MINNESOTA CATHOLIC ACTION NETWORK!

Are you tired of political ads that promote views that are clearly in contradiction to Catholic faith? Do you feel helpless and unable to make a difference? Join the Minnesota Catholic Action Network! MCAN was created by the Minnesota Catholic Conference which serves Catholics in Minnesota under the direction of Minnesota's Catholic Bishops to help Catholics make a difference politically on issues and policy-making decisions that affect us all. Joining will allow you to receive updates on issues before the legislature, proposed policy decisions, and actions that you can take.

Fortunately, we are given a rich tradition of Catholic social teachings that are centered on creating the conditions for all to thrive. As Pope Francis has said, "good Catholics meddle in politics by offering the best of themselves." Therefore, we have a responsibility to engage with those who are seeking leadership roles in our democracy but must do so as principled, faithful citizens—that is, the "best of ourselves" - rather than as partisans.

Just go to MNCatholic.org and you will be able to sign up right on the front page. Also, go to the Election resources page that is chock-full of everything you need to get to know the principles of our faith and learn how to meet and get to know your candidates. Be informed. Take action. Entrust the results to God.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Do you have a desire to learn more about the Gospel and the teachings of the Catholic Church?

Do you have a desire to know and love God more?

Have you (or a family member or friend) considered becoming Catholic?

We invite you to join RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

Through RCIA, the Church invites you to learn more about its rich traditions and deep roots as the family of God. We will have an inquiry night on Tuesday, October 25th at 6:30 p.m. in St. Francis Hall, which will give you an opportunity to ask questions and learn more about exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic or returning to the Catholic Church.
