

And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.

THE SEARCH FOR GOD AND THE LIGHT OF GOD

Today on this feast of the Epiphany we celebrate the great event in which the kings traveled to see Jesus. We reflect on the great and tender moment when they reached their destination and prostrated themselves before Jesus offering their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. But in order to reach this moment when they looked upon Jesus and sat with him, they first had to go on a long and difficult journey. Along the way they stopped in Jerusalem to ask, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?" These words reveal a deep truth about us: We are all made for God and we have a great desire to seek him.

It is surprising to think that the kings would travel on a long journey over mountains to see a little child. We can think of the obstacles in their way including the fact that they did not know in which town the Holy Family stayed. Moreover, great tension existed as they made their journey. The words of King Herod to the kings were filled with deceit and the intention to kill. And in the land where Jesus lived, the Israelites were being oppressed by the Romans. When we look at the facts we might really think that this journey was unwise.

But the search of the kings was a search for God. And we also ask the question, "Where is God? Where is the newborn king of the Jews?" We will have to find him in our own places of tension where we live much of our lives. We will have to look for him in places where we argue for fairness and justice, at meetings, during family conflicts and in noisy hospitals.

It is wise, however, to keep searching and stay on the journey like the wise kings. They had the eyes of faith. They were guided by the light of God from a star. God will give us that light to guide us also even during the difficult parts of the journey. God will not fail us on the journey of faith. The light of God gave the wise kings great hope and they fixed their hope entirely on seeing Jesus, the newborn king. So our journey continues. We also fix our hope in seeing Jesus at every turn of the journey. We ask God the Father to lead us by his light to the Son.

This, however, means that we must leave things behind and pack lightly. We leave behind our expectations of how our lives will be. Jesus will reveal himself in ways that we could never imagine. We will reach our destination. Someday we will see Jesus in all of his glory in the next world. We stand before him at this mass grateful for that and ready to offer our gifts to him as he offers himself to us.

GUESS WHO IS COMING TO DINNER

This is our second dinner and we hope you can participate! Those who attended the first dinner had a very enjoyable meal together. This event is designed to promote and strengthen our parish community by providing a chance to meet new parishioners as well as those familiar faces we see each week at Mass and at parish events. Hosts and guests will be randomly selected for each dinner, so we can all meet new people.

NEXT DINNER January 21st, 2023 (please RSVP by January 16th)

Register as a guest or a host, by completing a registration form online at gachaska.org, return a complete registration found at the information desk in church, or email Laurie Forner at lforner2@gmail.com or call (612) 201-7002. You may return paper registrations to the office or in the collection basket at Mass.

About the Event:

Who: Everyone—Married Couples or Singles, Ages 21 and up

What: Guess Who's Coming to Dinner is a fun way for parishioners to meet, in groups of 6-8 people, in a relaxed, informal atmosphere over dinner and conversation. There is an element of surprise to the evening— as a guest, you will not know whose home you are going to until dinnertime; and as host, you will not know who is coming—adds fun for everyone!

Hosts will provide the main dish and beverages in a casual setting at their home. (Paper plates are acceptable! Whatever works for you. Also, it is not necessary to host to take part.)

Guests who attend the dinner will be asked to bring a salad, side dish, appetizer, or dessert. You will receive an email or call one week prior to provide the address and the food item to bring.

Where: At the home of a volunteer host.

When: Select Saturdays, every third month; 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.
