THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.
And he was transfigured
before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

WHAT IS THE RATIONALE OF PAYING 20% OF OUR INCOME TO CATHOLIC SCHOOLS?

As many of you know, the Archbishop has asked us to pay 20% of our income to neighboring Catholic schools as a result of our school closure. Over time, I have received both positive and negative feedback regarding this. Last week, I summarized the Archbishop's language in his letter to me about this requirement as he wrote giving us permission to close the school. I also wrote about how we distribute the funds to neighboring Catholic schools based on their number of students attending whose families are registered parishioners at Guardian Angels.

The Archbishop wants to make Catholic schools a priority in our Archdiocese. It was a painful decision to close our school, especially in an area of growth, because there is perhaps no better way to catechize young students and prepare them for a life of service to our Lord, Jesus and of living the Catholic faith as a fully contributing member of our society. As we know, Catholic school-educated students do very well later in life as they are educated about the love of God, the choice to follow God in life, and academically.

The rationale for paying 20% of our income is two-fold. First of all, we don't want to abandon our former students. Students who were displaced by our school closure were, in many cases, faced with a decision of whether or not to attend a school with a higher tuition as parishioners of Guardian Angels and, therefore, non-members of the parishes with these Catholic schools. Second, it would be easy to adopt the mindset of saying that we should just let the neighboring parishes bear the burden of funding a Catholic school. However, we are all responsible for the growth of Catholic faith in our local Archdiocese. We are, therefore, all responsible for the success of Catholic schools. Instead of going from at least 40% of our income devoted to Catholic schools to 0%, while letting other parishes support their Catholic school on their own, we are going from at least 40% of our income in support of Catholic schools to 20% as a way of sharing in this support. This way, we partner together as parishes to support Catholic schools.

But what about neighboring parishes who don't have this requirement? I don't know which ones do and which ones don't. We need to create a vision for our parish going forward and that is what is important – our parish vision. This vision should include and be created around this requirement so that we can make it work for us. I have believed that we could really emphasize forming young families in faith from their kitchen tables outward and onward. Young families are still forming their family culture and decision-making. Sports have not yet taken hold in their family schedules, for example. The faith of our young parents and their decisions of how and what to prioritize in their family life is still very much being formed. Young children are very open-minded and have a tremendous capacity to imagine God and God's love for them.

In our historical district of Chaska and Carver, we could attract younger families who may not be able to afford the new housing up on Highway 212. Young people are attracted to the beauty of our church. If we can provide a great incentive to be members of Guardian Angels, we can emphasize opportunities and ministry to these families and nurture them for growth such that we could address the real reason why our school closed. We could address faith lived out in practice in the home.

This year we will be working with Father Joseph Bambenek and Ms. Julie Meyer of the Archdiocese to form a vision for our parish in the next two or three years. I look forward to engaging in that process with you!

Father Tony

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPi, is setting up the advertising for our bulletin for the year. Also, if you know of any other businesses in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity. Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family, or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help! If you are interested in getting more information, please call Gina Shaughnessy at (952) 356-6488.
