Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

COME AND PARTICIPATE AT A PRAYER AND LISTENING SESSION

Dear Parishioners,

It is the night of Tuesday, October 24th and I just came from a prayer and listening session. One of the things I appreciate is how prayerful our time was. We began by reading Jeremiah 29: 11-14 when the prophet says to God's people, "When you look for me, you will find me." We journaled about what the passage says to us. To me, this is a great promise!

In our process of discernment we are really looking for God himself. It would not be sufficient to say that we are looking for God to guide us in this process. This may very well reduce God to simply a problem-solving God who can fix our problems. But God is more than this. I believe that we are looking for God himself - the God who reveals his very self to us personally. We are always looking for God. We want him to be present to us and reveal himself to us and this corresponds to our deepest satisfaction.

Then, we set the context for our discussion. An important part of our discussion is knowing that God can, at the snap of a finger, do more than we can do in ten years of planning or working. Therefore, we seek to pray for our fellow parishioners and listen to God for guidance as we draw near to Him. We do this as opposed to spending so much time and energy figuring things out on our own. This is a different mindset than an open town hall or a survey approach where people give their raw opinions. There will indeed be a brief survey available to all parishioners, but I want you to participate in a prayer and listening session. This is because it is an attempt to pray together and talk together in a mindset of listening in the hope that the Holy Spirit can work through the discussions and bring to light some ideas for the future.

There are actually two prayer times during the session. The second is Matthew 14: 25-33 when Peter walks on water toward Jesus. Peter boldly gets out of the boat and starts walking. Can he see him better as he goes through the storm? We may have times in our discernment process and in our future in which it will seem stormy in that the solutions may lie beyond what we have ever done as parishes. But it was when Peter saw how strong the wind was that he began to sink. We keep our eyes fixed on the Lord Jesus whom we seek.

I believe that the Holy Spirit can work in our parishes through this process! The Archbishop, in requesting a plan of action for both of our parishes has been clear that we should work together by praying, listening to one another, and discerning how we can move into the future. Father Joseph Bambenek and Julie Meyer from the Office of Renewal of Structures are here to help us do just this. Please come to one of our two remaining prayer and listening sessions. They are 6:30 to 8:30 PM on Monday, October 30th at the Parish Center at Saint Nicholas and 2:30 to 4:30 PM on Sunday, November 5th at the Saint Francis Hall at Guardian Angels.

VOLUNTEERS FOR THE MASS

Have you ever thought about volunteering for the Mass? We need your help! 83% of our ministries rely on one or two people serving EVERY WEEK. Lets change this!

If you are listed as a sub, please prayerfully consider becoming a "full-time" volunteer, even if only once a month.

Don't know where to help? These are the places we need help the most:

1. Ushers for the 8 a.m. and the 10 a.m. Masses. This is a great a great ministry for a married couple, a parent and a teen, or a pair friends! Or, make a new friend with your pew neighbor.
2. Cantors for the 4:30 p.m. and 8 a.m. Masses. If you ever wanted to join Adult Choir, but can't commit to the schedule being a cantor is just what you are looking for!
3. Eucharistic Ministers for all Masses. Each Mass takes 5 ministers (including Deacon John), so the more people we have that can serve, the better.
4. Altar Servers for all Masses. Most young parishioners start at 4th Grade, however many 5th graders and middle schoolers also join. If you are a teen who regrets not trying it when you were younger, don't fret! If there are enough of you interested, Brittany can set up a special "Older Kid" server training. Pizza anyone?
5. Lectors for all the Masses. Do you always get sucked in to reading bedtime stories or leading grace before meals? Well, we want you too. You know who you are.

Of course, we will also take people for any of the ministries above for a Mass not listed, as well as sacristans, youth choir members, and adult choir members.

After prayerfully considering joining, contact Brittany Kaufmann to sign up:
