5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

We encourage Godparents to attend. Baptisms are scheduled once per month after the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Special dates requested for Baptism will be considered and accommodated depending on circumstances.

Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least 8 months in advance.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

JESUS WILL MAKE IT SUFFICIENT

Dear Friends,

In our bulletin, you will see a strange number: $-63,257. This is the amount of deficit from our budget that we are running during the period July 1st, 2023 through this week. I had previously reported that we had rallied to make our giving match our budgetary needs. However, we made the mistake of not subtracting out our maintenance fund contributions in order to arrive at the deficit figure. The figure is, therefore, much larger than last week and it is clear now that we have not rallied quite like I had hoped. I thank you for your stewardship and at the same time, I hope that we can make such a rally.

We have had trying times at Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas. Everyone knows that. But we hear, for example, the story of the Loaves and Fishes when Jesus makes what is offered sufficient. Does this mean that he will close the gap? No, we must be the ones to do so. But first, we must believe. The disciples thought it was impossible. Then, a boy approached the Lord and offered up five barley loaves and two fish. The boy knew what He had to offer was insufficient to fill the entire hunger need, but he had faith in Jesus anyway and put that faith to action.

Now, we have small groups, we have a need for substitute and regular catechists, we have a need to have a fabulous time at the Beef and Sausage Dinner, we have a need to simply give generously so that we can keep the lights on and pay our staff, we have the Catholic Services Appeal, and we have a need to sing out at Mass in order to make a joyful noise to the Lord. What are your barley loaves? What are your two fish?

Jesus took the food and not only provided nourishment for everyone, but fed them all lavishly. Today, Jesus' response to our needs is just as sufficient. We experience this in the Eucharist. Each time we come to the Eucharist, the Lord wants to nourish us spiritually with the Bread of Life. He is able to nourish and transform our hearts and souls.

When you put your faith into action and offer up your gifts to the Lord, miracles can happen. Let students benefit from your teaching and help, let those who come through our gym doors see the strong tradition of a nice dinner together, let the future of Guardian Angels be secure and the staff rest easy, let the poor and others benefit from your generosity to the CSA, and let those around you experience the vibrancy of the Mass through your participation.

Thank you for your stewardship and commitment to this Church. Your sacrifice helps to make the love of Jesus real and tangible!

Father Tony

All men of the parish are asked to pick up a Beef and Sausage Worker's list at the entrances of the church.

Making Chaska History since 1949!

GIVE TO THE ARCHDIOCESAN CATHOLIC SERVICE APPEAL!

Today's Gospel theme is the opposite of "hesitation." The disciples did not hesitate to ask the Healer for help. Jesus did not hesitate to respond. And even Simon's mother-in-law, after returning from fever, rises to serve him immediately. If Jesus were to walk in the door of our parish right now, he would be on a mission to love someone. If he were to enter your home, as he entered Simon's, he would be on a mission to love you.

Our parish is on Jesus' same mission of love, and we need your help to spread the love Christ entrusted to us. Love acts! When Jesus showed Simon's mother-in-law love, her heart wished to respond with more love. She chose to serve herself. Today, evaluate your ability to give, listen to the prompting of love, and then, do not hesitate... act by giving to our Archdiocesan Catholic Service Appeal!

THANK YOU!

The Daughters of Isabella would like to thank all who contributed to Roses for Life. The money collected will be sent to local pro-life organizations in the Twin Cities area.
