and I in him. Just as the living
Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will

BRIDGES OF MERCY FOR HEALING AFTER ABORTION

Maria* was going back to Church after her second-grader enrolled in First Communion classes. She didn't know what to say to her daughter after being asked why she didn't go to Communion. Maria had an abortion in her teens and felt that she couldn't go to confession because she had committed an "unforgivable sin."

Li* and his wife, Vanessa*, were attending counseling to address problems in their marriage. Li decided to finally tell Vanessa that, while in college, he had taken his former girlfriend to get an abortion. Vanessa was devastated.

Jennifer* comes from a large, pro-life family that is active in their parish. At the funeral of her devout, beloved mother, Jennifer was despondent beyond the grief of her loss. Jennifer couldn't stop thinking that her mother in heaven would now discover the secret she had kept for thirty years: the existence of a granddaughter, whom Jennifer had aborted in college because she was too ashamed to tell her parents about her pregnancy.

When Darryl* started attending a parish men's prayer group, he began to feel more connected than ever to his faith. But with his increasing engagement, he began to wonder whether God would really forgive him for encouraging and paying for the abortion of his only child.

Maria, Vanessa, Li, Jennifer, and Darryl are among the tens of millions of Americans whose lives have been directly touched by abortion. Like so many others, they have experienced shame, regret, guilt, and grief. But, as they have also experienced, God's healing love and mercy are always possible.

While many Catholics want to help women and men heal from past abortions, most don't know how to begin. Here are a few ways that Catholics of different backgrounds can assist friends, family members, fellow parishioners, clients—or perhaps even themselves:

If you are like Jennifer, who had an abortion, read the words of St. John Paul II to women who have had abortions. Be assured that it is never too late to seek God's forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation and that "you can with sure hope entrust your child" to the Father and His mercy (EV 99).

If someone like Maria reveals an abortion, express your sympathy for her loss. Assure her of God's unconditional love, and encourage her to seek healing and forgiveness. Explain that the U.S. Church's Project Rachel Ministry for healing after abortion offers confidential, compassionate help (www.HopeAfterAbortion.org).

If you are a member of your parish pro-life committee, remember those who may be suffering like Jennifer or Li. Regularly highlight information about Project Rachel Ministry and healing after abortion using bulletins, bulletin boards, literature racks, parish webpages, e-newsletters, and any other appropriate means of communication.

If you are actively involved in public pro-life advocacy which people like Jennifer may encounter, remember to communicate with messages that are respectful, non-judgmental, and compassionate.

If you are a mental health professional who works with couples like Vanessa and Li, strive to learn more about abortion trauma and how those you are serving may be affected.

If you are trying to be a devout parent like Jennifer's mother was, remind your children frequently that you love them unconditionally. Promise they can always come to you when they are troubled or have done something wrong.

If you don't specifically know anyone in circumstances similar to those of the people mentioned, you still have an important mission. Keep all who suffer after abortion in your prayers, and commit yourself to being an instrument of mercy. Show by your example what it means to ask for and extend forgiveness.

All of us are sinners. Yet Pope Francis calls mercy a "bridge that connects God and man, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite our sinfulness" (MV 2). The Holy Father also reminds us, "As the Father loves, so do his children. Just as he is merciful, so we are called to be merciful to each other" (MV 9). Life is a gift from God and so is his mercy. May we cherish and promote both!

If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, non-judgmental help is available. Visit www.HopeAfterAbortion.org, or call Project Rachel Ministry's national, toll-free number: 1-888-456-HOPE (4673).

A MESSAGE FROM THE HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

John Paul II writes, "Welcoming our brothers and sisters with care and willingness must not be limited to extraordinary occasions but must become for all believers a habit of service in their daily lives."

You can be the face of Guardian Angels' Hospitality by volunteering with your family, your ministry, or small group members to serve coffee and donuts after Sunday 8 and 10 a.m. Masses. Maybe you want to sign up for a regular Sunday time like the Knights of Columbus who serve every 3rd Sunday. Or you can pick a couple of dates when it is convenient for you.

Call or text (612) 201-7449 (Ken Forner) or (612) 201-7002 (Laurie Forner) if you would like to support our Sunday Hospitality.

START THINKING ABOUT THIS FALL

Summer is a fantastic season we should fully enjoy as we do not always have this lovely weather here in Minnesota! However, here in the middle of August it is not too early to start thinking about this fall. As you print out your kids' school supply lists (do people still print them out these days?), you should also get out your calendar. The sign up periods for many ministries are opening up in the next couple of months. Does your child need to be signed up for Faith Formation? Do you want to sign up to be a catechist? Does anyone in your family want to serve for the Mass? If you plan for these things being on your calendar now, you will have a smoother transition into fall. Pay attention in the next few months as ministries begin to advertise their needs and commitments. You may be able to do more than you thought.

He now travels globally healing those with mental, physical, emotional, and spiritual ailments. Join him at Maternity of Mary for Mass, and for his talk and healing.

The Fall Festival, featuring the Daughters of Isabella General Store & Silent Auction is coming soon!

In the GENERAL STORE, we are in need of canned & baked goods and garden produce. We also need new or gently used items that will be sold at discount prices. Indicating the approximate value of the items you donate is greatly appreciated!

New & gently used items such as wine, glasses, and wine markers make up a fun wine themed basket. You can either make up your own basket or donate individual items and we will add your items to those donated by others to create the basket.

GIFT CERTIFICATES are much-needed items that add great value and appeal to the baskets. Gift certificate ideas include clothing stores, liquor, Visa, sporting events, Spas & Massages, restaurants, and local attractions (Yellow Barn, Valley Fair).

ALL PROCEEDS GO TO GUARDIAN ANGELS. Please bring your items, with their approximate value, to the Church office – the sooner the better! It takes a large amount of time to get this together. Last year we had over 100 baskets – something for everyone 😊.

If you have any questions, please call Barb Brose at (952)448-5057 or Colleen Tompkins at (612)741-7646.
