THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

REAL “FACE TIME”

Recently, I heard a story about a parent who came home from work and discovered that the three children had taken out the trash, cleaned the kitchen, and tidied their bedrooms. The parent was impressed and asked, “What made you do all this wonderful housework?” The children replied, “The WIFI is down.” In another story a grandmother once commented that she knows more about her granddaughter than she ever knew about her daughter. The gentleman hearing this replied, “Yes, young people today talk more easily about so many things.” The grandmother said simply, “Well, I don’t know about that. I just go to my granddaughter’s Facebook page and her entire life story is all there!”

There was a time when a summer bonfire was an opportunity to tell stories. These days, I am not sure if such a venue is seen as the same opportunity. I am old enough to remember typewriters, busy signals, mass mailings, and calling everyone to say that the meeting time has changed. Many of these things have thankfully been replaced by more efficient means of communication. I wonder, though, what the next new wave – or maybe I should say “waves” – is going to be. It takes at least two people to communicate and it wasn’t too long ago that I bought a smartphone because it became clearer and clearer that you are expected to reply by text.

In the Church, electronic communications would be fine if, in the living out of our faith, all we needed was a way to exchange ideas. Yet we not only follow a set of spiritual ideals and central teachings, but we are also in a relationship with a real person – Jesus Christ. The movement of the Holy Spirit transforms people into one body, not into a collection of great thoughts.

In our conversations with each other, there is a noticeable difference when I can see the person’s face. I notice the raised eyebrow or the silent nod of the head. But when I am reading something electronic, I need to read between the lines in order to really know what is being communicated. We get a lot more out of face-to-face conversations than from any email or text.

The wise men traveled a long distance to see the newborn king. The road was dangerous, and they had to avoid Herod’s threat. They went to see a child and came bearing gifts. They did so amid a world that didn’t always have enough time for Jesus as was seen in how the Holy Family didn’t have enough room at the inn even though Mary was pregnant. But we must take the time for people because we were made for relationship. We were made for “face time.”

Saint Thomas Aquinas wrote about the “beatific vision” – the experience of coming to heaven and meeting God face to face. If the end of our earthly pilgrimage is the opportunity to behold with perfect love the very face of God, then we will do well to practice for this kind of face time. Masses, confessions, times in adoration, daily prayer, and meditations with the scriptures are all good examples of face time with God. Yet, at the same time, we are to not only love God with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength, but to love our neighbor as ourselves. We build our relationships with one another in just the same way as we build our relationship with Jesus Christ.

This coming year is the Jubilee Year of Hope as proclaimed by Pope Francis. As we venture into hope, let us consider how we can have real face time with our families and gather as disciples at our parishes even when it means that the meeting’s agenda is secondary or that it is time to put away the laptop or cell phone. If anyone wonders why, just say, “I’m trying to be like the wise men” or “I am practicing for the beatific vision.”

May God bless your Epiphany Sunday together!

Father Tony

DO YOU LOVE TO WRITE OR CREATE? JOIN OUR INTERCESSION WRITING TEAM!

We're seeking volunteers to help write intercessions for our parish. If you enjoy writing or have a creative spirit, this is a wonderful way to contribute to our liturgical celebrations. Father Tony will provide training, so no previous experience is necessary—just a willingness to learn and share your gifts.

For more information or to volunteer, please contact: Brittany Kaufmann, bkaufmann@gachaska.org, (952) 227-4000.

Gracias to our volunteer who signed up to write intercessions en Español.

CANTORS FOR MASS

Have you ever thought about becoming a cantor? We are looking for new cantors for both Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas. You will get trained in on how to lead the congregation in joyful praise to the Lord!

For more information or to sign up, contact Brittany Kaufmann at bkaufmann@gachaska.org.

WE ARE STILL COLLECTING CANS

If you would like to drop off your cans, small bags can go in the bin outside of the can shed behind church. Large bags of cans can go on the ground next to the bin. Thanks.

TAKE OUR PRESCHOOL SURVEY

We are thrilled to share that we are considering opening a Catholic Preschool in autumn 2025! This would be a wonderful opportunity to nurture young hearts and minds in a faith-filled environment that fosters spiritual growth, academic readiness, and a love for learning.

To make this dream a reality, Guardian Angels needs your help! A short survey has been developed to gather input from our parish and community. Your participation is vital—it will help us understand the level of interest, the needs of local families, and how we can best serve our children.

Please take a moment to complete the survey and share it with other families in the community. Together, we can shape a preschool that reflects our shared values and vision for the future.

Thank you for your prayerful support and involvement in this exciting initiative!

Scan me to take the survey! 😊

AN ANNOUNCEMENT FROM KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Fr. Tony is accepting a $5,000 check from Chaska Knights of Columbus Council 9141, which is to be applied to the one to one $25,000.00 challenge match for the school building front step repair project. They encourage others to also donate to this fund.

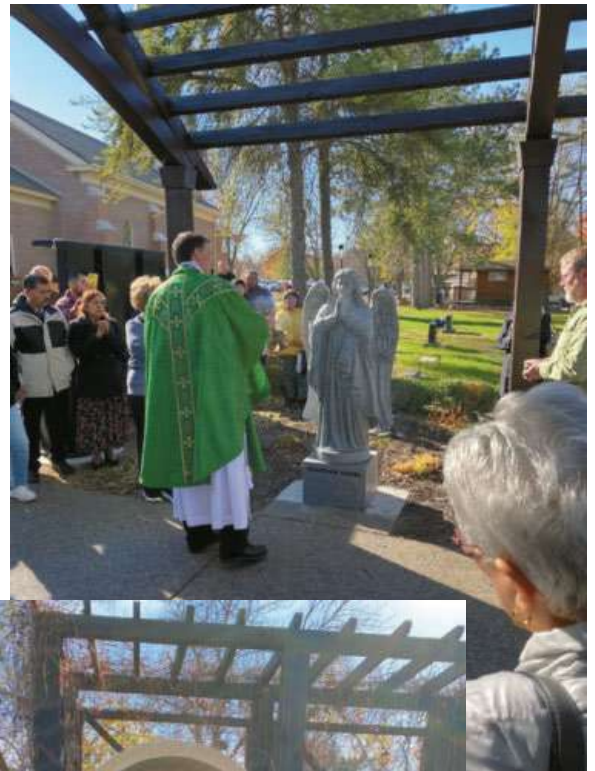

The non-profit Knights of Columbus council raises funds through activities such as fall pancake breakfasts, Lenten fish fries, and a dedicated Tootsie Roll Drive (specifically supporting organizations assisting intellectually or developmentally disabled persons such as Special Olympics, Magnifying Abilities, and ARC of MN).

Other organizations that have been and continue to be financially supported by the local K of C council include South West Options for Women, Alpha Women's Center MN mobile clinic, Southern Valley Alliance Women's shelter, Feed my Starving Children, Sharing and Caring Hands, and Bountiful Basket. We also support several local seminarians and of course many GA parish projects such as the School Gym LED lighting, School complex Domestic hot water heater, School Kitchen 3 door refrigerator repair and others.

GA men, perhaps consider joining the local Knights in these endeavors.

NEW STATUES AT THE PRAYER GARDEN!

The St. Nicholas Prayer Garden recently installed new granite statues of a Guardian Angel and St. Padre Pio. If you have not had a chance to stop by and check them out, please do. We appreciate Fr. Tony doing the blessing during our installation celebration! We also give thanks to God for the many individuals who give in so many ways to make the St. Nicholas Prayer Garden the beautiful, peaceful place that it is. The Prayer Garden will celebrate 10 years in 2025! Look for more to come during the 10 year Anniversary celebration!
