Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

The U.S. bishops' pastoral letter on stewardship reinforces today's reading from 1 Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and well-being are the responsibility of the members—the personal responsibility of each one of us. STATE OF THE PARISHES

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last week, I wrote about praying for our newly elected president, Congressional leaders, state leaders, and our country. This is a very civic-minded time, it seems to me, with last Thursday (January 22nd) as a day of penance as we pray for an end to abortion and a respect for life, as we remember Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and as we remember this week as a week of prayer for Christian Unity.

So now, I thought I'd write about the state of our parishes. We are seeing encouraging results from our preschool survey. As of Tuesday, January 21st, we have received 33 completed surveys, with most indicating a desire for all-day and year-round preschool. Of the respondents, 81% said that the most important factor in selecting a preschool was that the school be based in faith. 54% of the respondents said that it is very likely that, if the preschool were to open this autumn, they would enroll their children in the next 3 years, and 24% said that they would be equally as likely to send them to another preschool. If you feel that you could help us as part of a committee, let me know!

A contractor has been selected for the complete rebuilding of the school front steps. I offer a special thanks to those who have contributed to the school stairs fund, but also to all of you who have participated in the building up of our maintenance fund. This will be instrumental in helping us to open a new preschool and it is certainly not too late to make a donation. We anticipate that we would complete this project by July 15th of this year with a goal of opening up our preschool by this autumn.

Our monthly commission meetings to implement our new strategic plan have been productive and, I believe, have helped us to foster each other's collective efforts and begin to build upon successes. The Strengthening Finances Commission has spearheaded the effort to rebuild the school steps and pursue a new preschool with the help of Catholic Schools Center of Excellence (CSCO). The Evangelization Commission has begun efforts toward increasing visibility and understanding of all that we have to offer. Soon we will have additional evangelization initiatives including joining the Latinos this spring and summer. The Youth, Young Adult, and Young Families Commission has helped us with an open house to showcase our faith formation, Catholic School Dollars for Scholars scholarship program, and hope for a preschool. The Sunday Experience Commission promoted a wonderful outdoor Mass last October at the prayer garden. Now it turns our focus on making the Mass time change go as smoothly as possible. Again, on March 2nd going forward, we will change our Sunday morning English Mass offerings to 7:30 AM Saint Nicholas and 9:00 AM Guardian Angels, and a Spanish Mass at 12 (noon).

A Word about Saint Paul

This Saturday, January 25th is the feast day of the Conversion of Saint Paul. It is the patronal feast day of our archdiocese as we remember our Mother Church, The Cathedral of Saint Paul. Saint Paul was born a Jew in the Roman city of Tarsus, which is now in modern day Turkey. As a Roman citizen, he was a devout Jew who persecuted Christians and approved the martyrdom of Saint Stephen. One can truly say that he was a man who stood at the center of various groups: Jew and Gentile, persecutor of Christians and devout follower of Christ, and missionary to the Gentiles.

In Acts 9: 15-16, Jesus appeared to Ananias and told him to go to Saul, lay his hands on him, heal him, and baptize him. Jesus explained that "this man is a chosen instrument of Mine to carry My name before Gentiles, kings, and Israelites, and I will show him what he will have to suffer for my name." We are all chosen instruments of God. We thank Saint Paul for his example to us of being ever-faithful in carrying out his role!

TAKE OUR PRESCHOOL SURVEY

We have exciting news! Early survey results show strong interest in a Guardian Angels Catholic Preschool and we're thrilled about the possibility of opening our doors this autumn. This would be a wonderful opportunity to nurture young hearts and minds in a faith-filled environment that fosters spiritual growth, academic readiness, and a love for learning. While we are eager to move forward, enrollment is not yet open. We understand that many preschools are currently accepting applications, and we encourage families to secure a spot elsewhere if needed. However, we sincerely hope you'll consider joining the Guardian Angels Preschool family when the opportunity arises.

To make this dream a reality, Guardian Angels needs your help! A short survey has been developed to gather input from our parish and community. Your participation is vital—it will help us understand the level of interest, the needs of local families, and how we can best serve our children.

Please take a moment to complete the survey and share it with other families in the community.
Together, we can shape a preschool that reflects our shared values and vision for the future.

Please keep us in your prayers as we work toward making this vision a reality and stay tuned for updates on enrollment. We can't wait to welcome your little ones!

FALL FESTIVAL PLANNING MEETING

*Tuesday, January 28th, 6:30-8:30 p.m.,

If you have ideas on how to improve our food, raffle, entertainment, or volunteer recruiting, please come to this planning session.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL NEXT WEEK

We are a culture of doers. We demonstrate love for our families through service – taking aging parents to doctor appointments, hosting holiday gatherings, carting kids to school activities. We climb the ladder of success through long hours of work. So burdened by activities, we often need another rest after returning home from a family vacation. Even in our faith lives, we follow Christ by doing. We evangelize, serve the marginalized, attend Mass, etc. Service is good.

Jesus' ministry was an active one based on service, and as his followers, we are called to continue these good works in his name. But we need to be with Jesus, too. We need to contemplate Him, this God-made-man who brings good news to those who suffer. Jesus says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me." If we let the Holy Spirit rest in us as it did in Him, we will enjoy a deep and abiding friendship with Christ. He desires intimacy with us, and intimacy requires that we slow down and feel the presence of our Lord in our lives.

In Jesus' first sermon, we see that the Spirit dwells in Him, empowering him to establish a kingdom of peace and justice that will never end. Please pray for the success of the Catholic Services Appeal as a way of building the Kingdom of God and ask the Holy Spirit to guide your participation in it.

ST. BENEDICT AND HOSPITALITY

Our history at Guardian Angels started with the Benedictines who lived by the Rules of St. Benedict. One theme in his Rules is hospitality. He says, "Let all guests that come be received like Christ Himself, for He will say, 'I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in.'"

We enjoy serving our guests and parishioners at Guardian Angels after Masses each Sunday. Our menu includes juice, coffee, tea, donuts, fruit, bagels and cream cheese, and some gluten free treats as well. Please consider joining us and signing up to serve. It is a great way to be hospitable to our neighbor, to meet new people, or catch up with old friends. Individuals, families, and each of our ministry groups are welcome and encouraged to provide hospitality. We will order the supplies and provide easy directions for those who would like to assist. Call or text Laurie Forner at (612) 201-7002 to sign up for Sundays in this winter and spring.

"LIFE IS GOOD" SPEAKER SERIES

"The Gift of Peter"
A Trisomy 18 Story

At this FREE event, Mary Kellett, founder of Prenatal Partners for Life, will speak at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, 680 Mill Street, Excelsior. You can choose from two sessions:

1. Tuesday, February 4th, 6:30-8 p.m.
2. Wednesday, February 5th, 8:30-10 a.m.

Beginning Sunday March 2nd, our new Sunday morning Mass schedule will be:

- 7:30 AM Mass in English at Saint Nicholas
- 9:00 AM Mass in English at Guardian Angels
- 12:00 PM Mass in Spanish at Guardian Angels

Our Archbishop has responded to our strategic plan. He stated in his recent letter to Father Tony that he was pleased with 3 aspects of the plan:

1. The plan envisions going out to evangelize our neighbors. Pope Francis often reminds us that we cannot thrive, or even survive, as a Church that only looks inward. We must find ways to successfully welcome those who are new to the area.
2. Leaders from Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas collaborated in this planning effort. As we bring the good news of Jesus to our neighbors, we must work together, building upon the strengths of each parish. This is very true for us who have limited financial and staff resources.
3. The plan proposes a reasonable Mass schedule that can be fulfilled by one priest.

Archbishop Hebda looks forward to receiving an extensive update by October 31st, 2025 as to how our progress has unfolded and he assures us of his prayers. The work that we do together in these coming months will surely be of critical importance in growing Jesus' Church in Chaska and Carver. Thank you for your efforts!

Father Tony
