STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

Today's readings speak of hospitality. Abraham, who cheerfully did for his guests all that desert hospitality required, was rewarded with his heart's desire—a son. Martha also busied herself with all the details of hospitality, but grudgingly and with complaint. Am I a cheerful or grudging giver?

Marriage preparation is required. Please call Father Tony VanderLoop, Pastor, at 952-679-9415 at least 8 months in advance.

Communion for the Homebound:

When we come together to pray at our Eucharistic liturgy, we do not forget the members of our community who are unable to be with us because of ill health. We remember them in our prayers, and we wish to include them in our Holy Communion. Members of our community bring the Blessed Sacrament to them to comfort them and to unite us in the Eucharist. We are not always aware of those who have this need. Please call the Parish Office to let us know if you or a member of your family would like to have Holy Communion brought to them. Then we can schedule a time for our ministers to visit and bring the Sacrament.

AND WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

First off, I would like to say that I had a great time with my sisters, Sarah and Maria, and their families in North Carolina and Maryland, respectively. My father, George, and I drove there and spent some time together fishing on the North Carolina coast, some time in the backyard pool and walking around in Frederick, MD listening to bands and taking in the fresh air. It was just so good to be with family again, and especially with my dad. Now it is good to be back as we gear up the preschool, our faith formation, and our councils.

Last Sunday we heard Jesus tell the story of the Good Samaritan in response to the doctor of the law's question, "And who is my neighbor?" He asked this question in order to see if his charity and obedience to the Ten Commandments and loving one's neighbor could be limited as applying only to some. But the work of the Church has always been to express charity particularly in meeting people's basic needs wherever they are. This principle and the principle that we are to welcome the stranger has helped the Bishops of the United States and Mexico form the document, Strangers No Longer: Together on a Journey of Hope, first written in 2003.

Our country's Southern border is a point of focus because that is where we see the greatest numbers of immigrants and the policies that are revealed as rather broken. The Church is concerned about immigrants wherever they are and about the problems that happen before they become immigrants to provide basic necessities for one's family because the Church has always been about the work of charity. The phrase "open borders" has become such a political mantra, but a border needs to have flexibility to have people come and leave just as we allow goods to be sent and be imported, keeping in mind of course that what is the greatest value is the human person.

We want an orderly process by which people are able to receive a visa when there is a need on our side of the border or when they have a need themselves and are fleeing to find a place of refuge. This is just what human beings do for other human beings as Jesus' parable invites us to. When things are not working as they should, it doesn't lead us to give up. It leads us to do what we can to improve the system. If our car is not running the way it should, we do what we can until we have time to get it into the shop. Unfortunately, our immigration system has been a clunker for decades and is badly in need of reform.

So what can we do? Pray for immigrants. Pray for those forced to leave their home countries or to flee them. Pray for a reform of the immigration system that corresponds to the needs of employers in our country and to the needs of families seeking refuge. Also, it may seem small, but go out of your way to meet an immigrant. When you feel like they are comfortable with you and you have had a chance to exchange some pleasantries, ask them about their life just as you would a friend, and let them tell you their story.

When we do that we will be overcoming some of the barriers that exist between brothers and sisters. We will begin to humanize the situations on a true compassion for people who are suffering. As Christians, we can never put this aspect aside. We will never arrive at a good solution that reflects being neighbor collectively as a community, just as we are called to individually, unless we are acting out of love.

PRESCHOOL ENROLLMENT IS OPEN

Dear Parishioners and Friends,
Guardian Angels Catholic Preschool, opening in Fall 2025, is still accepting enrollment! Rooted in the teachings of Christ, our preschool will nurture young hearts and minds, forming children in faith, wisdom, and love from their earliest years.

Your encouragement and prayers have been instrumental in bringing this vision to life. Let's keep praying for its success! As we embark on this mission, we remain steadfast in our commitment to providing a loving, faith-filled environment where children can grow academically and spiritually. I invite you to learn more and secure a place for your child by visiting www.gachaska.org/preschool. May God bless this new chapter for our parish, and may our children grow in the knowledge and love of the Lord. Thank you for your prayers, support, and commitment to Catholic education!
Father Tony VanderLoop

THANK YOU FOR YOUR DONATION TO BOUNTIFUL BASKET

Dear parishioners of Guardian Angels and Saint Nicholas,

Your generosity makes a real difference. Thank you for your thoughtful gift of $110.00 to Bountiful Basket Food Shelf. Because of you, families in our community have access to nourishing food, critical resources, and the support they need to navigate challenging times. Together, we can fulfill our mission of, “Nourishing neighbors, inspiring hope, and supporting families on their road to self-sufficiency.”

While we continue to see the demand for our services increase, we also see the profound impact of your kindness every day. Meet Stephanie, a mom of two teenagers who recently visited our food shelf. Stephanie and her husband work hard to support their family, but life took an unexpected turn when she had to leave her job due to illness. Suddenly, the family found themselves trying to make ends meet on a single income. Stephanie shared how overwhelming it felt trying to balance medical bills, groceries, and everyday expenses. Visiting the food shelf twice a month has been a tremendous relief for Stephanie and her family. The support has helped ease the financial burden, allowing them to focus on other pressing needs. The food she receives not only nourishes her family but also provides a sense of hope during this difficult time.

Stephanie’s story reflects the vital role your support plays in helping families in need. Together, we’re making a difference, one meal at a time. Thank you for joining us in our mission to nourish, support, and empower our neighbors. At Bountiful Basket, we believe no one should face hardship alone. Thanks to you, we can provide food as well as a place of dignity, connection, and care for those who need it most.

Sincerely,

Patti Sinykin, Executive Director

August 1-3, 2025 – Weekend Silent Retreat for Men & Women

"Being Disciples of Jesus in Charity, Justice, and Prophecy – Why Being Good-Hearted if not Enough" presented by Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI

Our communities, both church and civil, have never been more divided about what constitutes charity, justice, and prophecy. Faith issues and moral issues are dividing us as never before. Today the sincere are being divided from the sincere. What is charity? What is justice? What is prophecy? What does scripture teach us on this? What is the church's authentic tradition on this? A spirituality of charity, justice, and prophecy.

SPACE IS LIMITED - Includes Mass, personal prayer time, Reconciliation. Suggested Donation of $375 includes $50 deposit at registration; includes 2 overnights, private accommodations and 5 meals; Register online at www.kingshouse.com or call 763-682-1394.

August 22-24, 2025 – Weekend Silent Retreat for Men and Women

"Fingers Crossed" presented by Fr. Charlie Lachowitzer

Hope is not a fingers-crossed wish upon a Bethlehem star that nothing bad happens or something good happens. The virtue of hope is something beautifully different. With the virtues of faith and love, hope is in the mystery of the Cross of Jesus Christ. With hope, there is a joy that grows and perseveres no matter our past circumstances, present challenges or future fears. These days, it is most helpful to be more hope full.

Includes Mass, personal prayer time, Reconciliation. Suggested Donation of $325 includes $50 deposit at registration; includes 2 overnights, private accommodations and 5 meals; Register online at www.kingshouse.com or call 763-682-1394.
